Arlington FBLA

Arlington FBLA has the opportunity to compete in two contests in the month of February. On February 1st nineteen students went to the University of Nebraska at Lincoln to compete against other FBLA students across the state. We had two students place in FBLA Business Principles, Rachel Kraemer was 3rd and Emily Kraemer 6th. On February 19th, twenty-three FBLA students will compete at University of Nebraska of Omaha against other FBLA students across the state. At this event each student who places first in each category will receive a thousand dollar scholarship to UNO. The FBLA students will also compete in March at Midland and will be in Omaha at the State Leadership Conference April 7-9th.

Arlington Quiz Bowl

The Arlington quiz bowl team has competed in five competitions this winter. They have done well and will continue to work towards the conference tournament. At the all-girls quiz bowl in Seward sponsored by the Women's Club of America, the team of Chole Iossi, Grace Volk, Rachel Kraemer, Mackenzie Hagemeister, and Brook Hoesing finished second place. At the Seward/Concordia All Geography/History Bowl the team of Ethan Gubbels, Brandon Keffer, Logan Sampson, Seth McRobert, and Dillan Whitmarsh finished in 1st place. At Grace University the advanced team of Dillon Whitmarsh, Ethan Gubbels, Brandon Keffer, and Matthew Menard finished 14th out of 21. The novice team of Grant Bracht, Jack Douglas, Sam Anzalone, and Alec Timm finished 4th out of 11 teams. At the ESU 3 competition the advanced team took on Platteview and Elkorn and in a tough day lost to both. Then in the first round of the KTCH Radio competition the advanced team defeated South Sioux City in round one. The team will take on West Holt on February 15th.
