

The Central Community College Board of Governors accepts the resignation of Sandra Borden from the board because she has moved out of the district. The board thanks her for her service.