4. Officers' Reports

City Administrator Tom Ourada explained that the budget is not completely done yet. The City Council will have the work session on Saturday, August 24th, at 9:00am. The lid limit or levy relies on the valuation we plug into the state forms, and it didn't register, which means that there was no growth. Right now, what you will see is 2 1/2% with a resolution for an additional 1%. Last year there was growth and then it went up to almost 4% and in order to stay under the limit to not have a joint public hearing, it went to 3 1/2%. There are a couple departments that are over budget. There will be discussion on that.
