

Students

Child Abuse and Neglect

School employees shall report to the principal when they have reasonable cause to believe that a child has been subjected to abuse or neglect, or circumstances which reasonably would result in abuse or neglect. The principal will report the matter to the proper law enforcement agency or other agency as required by law.

Legal Reference: Neb. Rev. Stat. §28-711

Date of Adoption: June 9, 2008

Reviewed: October 8, 2012