

The College President recommends acceptance of the updated comprehensive master plan with approval for the president to make adjustments due to private or other public funding support.