

DRAFT -- Mission Statement

The Crete, Nebraska Historic Preservation Commission serves in an advisory capacity, and offers guidance and education in recommending landmark and National Register of Historic Places designations. The Commission maintains the inventory of designated, and potentially eligible, historic properties including buildings, sites, districts, and specific places within its jurisdiction to ensure that the architectural and historical integrity of such properties is preserved and protected.