

Personnel - Non-Certificated Employees

Contract

All non-certificated employees may be required to sign an "at will" employment contract with the school district as a condition precedent to employment or continued employment with the school district. The non-certificated "at will" employee contract shall be in the form as proposed by the Superintendent of Schools and approved by resolution of the Board of Education.

Date of Adoption: March 10, 2008

Reviewed: February 13, 2012