3.A. Discussion on council decorum.

City Administrator Tom Ourada stated that this is kind of council decorum and it originated when a council member was engaged in disparaging comments of a city employee. Ourada mentioned that Hickman has a good statement that they have adopted and posted in their council chambers. Ourada mentioned if the committee is interested in that they can look at some examples and have a version posted. It's also for the people in the audience so that the decorum is maintained.
