- Demonstrated problem-solving and decision-making ability. The Property Manager operates independently on routine operational matters.
- Ability to lift up to 40 pounds and safely use a ladder

City Council:

Note items above full job description in blue. Recommended for discussion to manage work-load and reasonable expectations of role to be a ‘Jack/Jill-of-all-trades’.

For consideration: can someone handy with clearing a clogged drain, inspecting vendors work on a maintenance repair billed to the City, also be great at making marketing videos, updating website content, adding social media posts to promote unit openings, while also maintaining a high level of customer service with vendors, tenants, and the City? (Conscious of not making this a “unicorn” position of many, diverse areas of expertise!)

Is a laptop provided, or computer available for use in the City office when needed?
 Cell phone provided? Or just an assigned phone number that can be used on the PM’s personal phone, then transferred via a software platform to another City -on-call phone number?

Other considerations:

- Security camera access only to applicable cameras
- Access to view payment status only of tenants in City software used for utility billing

Compensation Considerations / Options:

These suggestions align pay with actual risk and effort, reduces turnover risk of PM position by preventing under-compensation during high-workload months/events, provides Council clear control points of compensation for budgeting.

1. Initial Lease-Up Period

- + $250 per unit turnover – OR - $75 per week, capped at 4 weeks per vacancy

Covers:

- Move-out coordination and walkthrough documentation
- Vendor scheduling (cleaning, paint, repairs, pest)
- Unit readiness checks
- Showings, open house coordination, and applicant communications up to lease execution
- Move-in coordination and key handoff

Recommended Guardrails:

- Routine maintenance during tenancy remains standard expectations
- Major City-directed capital repairs excluded

2. Annual Report Summary

- $250 additional for scheduling tenant coordination of interviews, conducting income eligibility verifications, and preparing deliverables for City Council report.

3. Emergency & Incident Response

- Hourly Rate (ex. $40/hr) for hours beyond scope – OR – Flat incident fee approved by City Council.
- Defined as:
 - After-hours (between 9:00 PM and 7:00 AM), weekend or major holiday response requiring extended coordination.
 - Property incidents involving multiple agencies or vendors.
 - Situations requiring repeated follow-ups beyond routine maintenance

Optional Council Language for Adoption of a Compensation Policy:

“The Property Manager compensation shall consist of a base monthly retainer for routine operations, with additional event-based compensation for unit turnover, initial lease-up periods, NAHTF Annual Report Summary compliance coordination, and extraordinary emergency response, as outlined in the adopted Compensation Option schedule.”

20. COLLECTION OF RENT FROM ASSIGNEES AND SUBTENANTS. Landlord may collect any rents for this property directly from any assignee or Subtenant and apply the amount to the rent due under this Lease. No such collection shall be a waiver of the provisions of this Lease.

 - b. Landlord shall receive any other damages or other awards based upon considerations other than value of the building which were awarded to Landlord.
 - c. Tenant shall receive any excess amount of any damages over Landlord's full appraised value determined in this Lease, which are awarded to the extent of the damages which tenant has suffered for the loss of the remainder of its lease.
 - d. Landlord shall receive any excess damages based upon the value of the building.
 - e. Tenant shall receive any other damages or other awards based upon considerations other than value of the building which were awarded to Tenant.
 - f. The allocation of damages shall be mutually agreed upon by the governmental authorities exercising the power of eminent domain, by Landlord and by Tenant. In the event that there is not an agreement on allocation as provided in this paragraph, the parties may agree to an award of damages for the value of the building and the lease.
24. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY. If fire or other casualty shall render the premises untenable, this Lease shall terminate immediately and any prepayments of rent shall be refunded pro-rata by Landlord; provided, however, that if the premises can be repaired within 90 days from the date of such event, then at Landlord's option, by notice in writing to Tenant, mailed within 30 days after such damage or destruction, this Lease shall remain in full effect, but the rent for the period during which the premises are untenable shall be abated pro-rata.
25. LIABILITY INSURANCE. Tenant shall provide, at Tenant's expense, general liability coverage and any liability coverage which Landlord may require as a result of the particular use of the Property, at all times during the lease term. All insurers must be approved by and be satisfactory to Landlord. All liability policies shall have such liability limits as may be required by Landlord. Tenant shall maintain insurance coverage, either through its self-insurance or through third-party insurers, as follows: (1) commercial comprehensive general liability insurance with minimum coverage of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) per claim for injury to or death of any one person, two million dollars ($2,000,000) for injury or death in any one occurrence, and one million dollars ($1,000,000) for property damage liability. In the event that the general liability insurance has annual aggregation limits of liability, the insurance shall be endorsed to provide a separate annual aggregation limit, in an amount not less than the amounts shown above, applicable to the leased premises.
26. HAZARD INSURANCE REQUIRED. Tenant, at its expense, will maintain with insurers approved by and satisfactory to Landlord, insurance with respect to the improvements and personal property which are part of the Property against loss by fire, lightning, and other perils covered by the standard all-risk endorsement (and any other perils which Landlord may require), in an amount equal to at least 100% of the full replacement value thereof, with no deduction for depreciation, and shall maintain insurance against such other hazards and in such amount as is customarily carried by Landlords and operators of similar properties and as Landlord may require for its protection. Flood insurance shall be carried if any portion of the Property lies within a 500-year flood plain or if required by Landlord. Tenant will comply with such other requirements as Landlord may from time-to-time reasonably request for the protection by insurance of the interest of the respective parties.

27. TERMS OF INSURANCE. All insurance policies maintained pursuant to this Lease shall name Tenant and Landlord as insureds, as their respective interests may appear. All insurance policies maintained pursuant to this Lease shall provide that there shall be no cancellation, non-renewal, termination for any reason, or modification without at least 15 days prior written notification to Landlord. All policies of insurance required by this Lease shall be delivered to and retained by Landlord.
28. FAILURE TO RENEW OR HAVE INSURANCE COVERAGE. If any policy maintained pursuant to this Lease is not renewed on or before 15 days prior to its expiration date or if no insurance policy is in force at any time, Landlord may procure such insurance, pay the premiums therefor, and such sums shall be immediately due and payable with interest, at the rate provided in this Lease, until paid.
29. PROOF OF LOSS UPON DAMAGE TO PROPERTY. If any loss occurs which may be covered by insurance, Tenant will immediately notify Landlord of the loss and shall make the proof of loss within the earlier of seven days or the time required under the insurance policy. If Tenant fails to make the proof of loss, Landlord may make the proof of loss.
30. SETTLEMENT WITH INSURANCE CARRIER. If the hazard insurance carrier refuses to pay a claim or offers to settle for less than the full cost of repairs or replacement, Tenant shall advise Landlord. Tenant shall not make a settlement for less than the full cost of repair or replacement without the written consent of Landlord. Any attorney fees or other costs which are incurred by Landlord in any action against an insurance carrier shall be repaid by Tenant upon demand.
31. COLLECTION OF AN AMOUNT LESS THAN THE MONTHLY RENT. Payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of an amount less than the monthly rent under this Lease shall be deemed to be a partial payment of the rent. No endorsement on any check shall be deemed an accord and satisfaction. Landlord may accept such payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to collect the balance of the rent.
32. SURRENDER. On the last day of the term of this Lease or on the earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably surrender the premises in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excepted, consistent with Tenant's duty to make repairs as provided in this Lease. Tenant shall at its expense remove all of its equipment from the premises, and any property not removed shall be deemed abandoned. All alterations, additions, and fixtures, other than Tenant's equipment and trade fixtures, which have been made or installed by either Landlord or Tenant on the premises shall remain as Landlord's property and shall be surrendered with the premises as a part of the premises. Trade fixtures shall not include any structural components of any buildings.

33. FAILURE TO SURRENDER. If the premises are not surrendered at the end of the lease' or on the earlier termination of the lease, Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against any loss or liability resulting from delay by Tenant in surrendering the premises. The indemnification includes, but is not limited to, claims made by any succeeding Tenant founded on such delay. Any succeeding Tenant is authorized to take legal action against Tenant to recover its damages from Tenant. The provisions of this section shall survive the termination of this Lease.
34. SURRENDER OF KEYS. Tenant shall promptly surrender all keys for the premises to Landlord at the place then fixed for payment of rent and shall inform Landlord of combinations on any locks and safes on the premises. Surrender of keys before the end of the lease shall not terminate this Lease unless Landlord accepts the surrender of the lease in writing. In no event shall Tenant be deemed to have abandoned the Property or this Lease during the term of this Lease unless Tenant first obtains the express written permission of Landlord. The provisions of this section shall survive the termination of this Lease.
35. HOLDING OVER. In the event that Tenant remains in possession of the premises after the expiration of this Lease without the execution of a new lease, Landlord may take any legal action to remove Tenant. If Landlord accepts a rent payment for a period of time after the end of the lease or otherwise acknowledges the tenancy, then Tenant is deemed to be occupying the premises as a Tenant from month-to-month. Any month-to-month tenancy is subject to all the conditions, provisions, and obligations of this Lease. The base rent for the hold-over period shall be increased to 150% of the base rent due under the terms of this Lease for the last year of the lease. The increased base rent shall then be adjusted by any CPI inflation index or by any other adjustment method provided in this Lease.
36. DEFAULT OF TENANT. A default by Tenant under this Lease shall occur if any of the following occur, but a default is not limited to the following:
 - a. Any one or more rent payments due from Tenant to Landlord shall be and remain unpaid in whole or part after they are due and payable;
 - b. Tenant fails to provide insurance as required by this Lease and the default continues for more than ten days after notice from Landlord;
 - c. Tenant violates or defaults in any of the other covenants, agreements, stipulations or conditions herein and such violation or default shall continue for a period of 30 days after written notice from Landlord of such violation of default;
 - d. If Tenant shall become insolvent, make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or if a receiver is appointed for Tenant;

- e. If any guarantor of this Lease shall become insolvent, make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, a receiver is appointed for the guarantor, file a voluntary bankruptcy proceeding or have an involuntary bankruptcy petition filed against the guarantor which is not dismissed within 120 days; or
 - f. Abandonment of the Property by Tenant (any absence by Tenant for more than seven days without notice to Landlord shall be presumed to be an abandonment).
37. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES UPON TENANT'S DEFAULT. The remedies provided in this paragraph are not exclusive and are in addition to any other remedies now or later allowed by law. Upon default of Tenant:
- a. Landlord may, at its option, declare this Lease forfeited, the lease's term ended, have the right to reenter the Property and have the right to take possession of the Property without any further obligation to Tenant. Landlord may remove all persons and property at the cost of Tenant.
 - b. Landlord may instead elect to keep Tenant in possession and continue to have all rights and remedies under this Lease. If Landlord elects to keep Tenant in possession, Landlord shall have the rights under subparagraph A for any future defaults or for any previous default which remains uncured.
 - c. If Landlord elects under subparagraph B to keep the lease in force, Landlord may lease the premises at a rate of rent determined by Landlord to be reasonable. Tenant shall pay to Landlord any costs incurred in leasing the Property and any rents under this Lease in excess of the rent which Landlord actually receives from new Tenant. The new Tenant may pay rents directly to Landlord.
 - d. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to release Tenant from any liability for any indemnification provided to Landlord under this Lease for any occurrence or omission prior to the date of termination of the lease.
38. TAXES. Landlord shall pay the real estate taxes upon the Property.
39. INTEREST. If Tenant fails to perform any of its promises contained in this Lease, including the failure to pay rent, then any unpaid rent and any sum advanced by Landlord under the terms of this Agreement shall bear interest from the due date or the date of payment by Landlord, respectively, to the date of payment to Landlord by Tenant at the rate of 16% per annum.
40. DEFAULT OF LANDLORD. Landlord shall not be deemed to be in default under this Agreement until Tenant has given Landlord written notice specifying the nature of the default and until Landlord fails to cure the default within 30 days after receipt of such notice or within such reasonable time thereafter as may be necessary to cure such default where such default is of such a character as to reasonably require more than 30 days to cure.
