1). The end of the 1st Quarter is this Thursday, October 17th!

2). The PLC day in September went really well and teachers decided that working on Social skills such as Verbal communication and Problem Solving and will re-evaluate their progress this Wednesday, October 16th.

3). Did the teacher walk-throughs this past month and started Formal evaluations of teachers. The teachers have been working towards their PLC goals and getting better in the classroom.

4). There will be a Shakespeare performance of Othello on Thursday, October 17th from 9:30 am to 11:00 am and you are invited to come and watch!

5). Highlights from FFA:

We took over 40 students to area range judging with 12 moving onto the state competition and then took 30 students to land judging with four students moving onto state on the 23rd, with several other students ribboning and doing well at the area competition.

We have 12 students attending the National FFA Convention.

Currently, Intro to Ag, 8th grade explore, and animal science is learning about livestock judging for the next competition. By Christen Reiman

6). I took a group of juniors and seniors to the career fair in Cambridge. There were several area businesses there with hands-on opportunities for the students. Area colleges were also present and showed students some of the different programs they offer. I will be hosting "Apply to College Day" next week and will host a tailgate for seniors and will make sure everyone has applied to at least one school. By Melinda Hunt

7). The 8th graders are working on emergency preparedness PSA's in English class. They are finished with audio ones, are working on videos, and will finish the unit with a flyer PSA. I've attached a completed audio file if you'd like to share it with them. By Meredith

8). Shout out to our Seniors who took the State ACT last Spring! They rocked it and here are their results compared with other surrounding schools.
