WPS Superintendent Report

Board of Education

April 8th, 2024

1. Elementary Happenings

The elementary/middle school are gearing up for statewide NSCAS testing in early April. This gets to be a really hectic time for our kids and teachers, so we need to be vigilant with them and help them out wherever we can.

2. Legislative Happenings

Debate has begun on LB1331/AM3313 as it has come out of select file. The legislature currently has two options on how to distribute over $1.1B in new state aid to schools.

Option 1: The Nebraska Plan will restore equalization aid to 236 out of 244 schools. This is done by lowering valuations within TEEOSA and also lowering the Local Effort Rate which will allow the Levy Lid to come down to guarantee property tax relief.

TEEOSA provides funding based upon a students needs and a schools resources. This provides targeted property tax relief to schools with the highest levies. This is the correct way to provide property tax relief.

Option 2: LB1331/AM3313 will increase foundation aid which will drive school levies farther apart and reduces equalization aid. Foundation aid is distributed by student numbers and is NOT based upon student needs. Shouldn't the individual needs of a student be a priority for the distribution of state aid? And school resources are vastly different. The main resource of a school is the valuation within the district. When divided by the number of students within the district the valuation per student ranges from less than $400K to over $6M. Option 2 would result in around a 240,000 decrease in state aid for Wausa if it remains unchanged, in addition to lowering our Agricultural property valuations. If they do not change the limits, and Caps are put in during amendments, Wausa may have to go to a postcard hearing simply to keep ahead, and we will be over 1.00. I think that the myth out there is that Foundation Aid is provided to all students. This is simple math based upon the fact that equalized schools do not get all of the foundation aid. 60% of foundation aid is counted as a resource so this reduces equalization aid by an equal amount. There are currently 64 schools who get equalization aid and they educate 212,552 students. Of the non-equalized schools they have 7,076 net option students who do not get foundation aid at all (Wausa has a positive number in net option). So 70% of Nebraska students do not currently get all of the foundation aid. If this gets out to the floor (and I expect that it will next week) we need to write letters expressing our disapproval of option 1.

3. Building and Grounds Committee

I met with the building and grounds committee last week. We are in the process of providing bids for our HVAC in the gymnasium. I also am continuing to work on a van for our kids paid with ESSERS III grant money. We are also working on hood bids for the kitchen, concrete for the west side of the lobby, and a small van that is wheelchair accessible (see provided.) Guarantee roofing is coming the day after Memorial day to start on the skylights in the elementary.

4. Future Planning Committee

We are planning on April 10th to be our next committee meeting with Osmond at Osmond. The only thing that I have currently on my agenda is scheduling updates from the administrative teams, and the potential for JH coops in basketball and Track and field, unless you want to bring up something else in the discussion items. No decisions will be made, and I will bring forth the results to you as soon as we can draft the minutes and get them ready.

5. NRCSA

Mrs. Clausen, Mr. Cunningham, and I attended the NRCSA spring conference, I will allow the other two to speak on that, and what they got from the conference.
