6. Administrative Reports

Mr Hoelsing discussed custodial staff and their hard work. They are on task and doing a good job this summer. He also noted we will be working on the 2025-26 school budget and getting that all in order. He also discussed state and special ed reimbursement and preparing for the decrease in state funds due to changes by the state. He also noted that teams sports camps, summer weights and athletes are doing well with summer sports activities and its flying by. We are looking forward to this upcoming school year.

Mr. Anderson noted the new scheduler system called Arbiter. It's a live online calendar that communicates with all schools and syncs with our Google calendar, so every game and activity should be live. We are working out the kinks but it will be able to give lists for each sport and become beneficial. He also discussed more curriculum is in, everything is really in place academically for students to walk through the door.

7. Discussion Items

7.1. Retreat Date

Monday, July 28th was discussed and set for the retreat date at 7:00pm

7.2. Potential Track & Field & Fieldhouse

Mike Kumm discussed the potential track and fieldhouse. Make our building and grounds more enticing for possible mobile students in the future. He gave a presentation on a potential company and a steel frame structure with tension fabric wall for a possible fieldhouse. He had the company work up a 90x160 size building. Install sports court flooring, portable hoops and nets. He discussed the possibly of adding things to make this a fully accessible community-use building.

7.3. Cooperative Agreement Update (Junior High Football & Wrestling)

Mr. Hoelsing gave an update on the cooperative agreement. He has had some good conversations with Bloomfield on JH Football. He also had some input from Creighton and possibly having some cooperative opportunities with us. He asked permission from board to act upon these to get something in place.

8. Executive (Closed) Session (If needed)

There was no need for closed session at this meeting.
