No new business reported.

16. Administrative Reports.

Mr. McCormick reported that Renee Hill will be hosting the Special Needs Livestock Show on March 27.

Danny Harris, High School Principal, reported that several of the Anadarko High School powerlifters will compete in the State Powerlifting Meet on Friday.

Larry Nunn, Middle School Principal, reported that the eighth-grade class recently took a field trip to the VAST. He also shared that seven junior high students qualified for the State Wrestling Tournament. Additionally, the Middle School Academic Team competed at Caddo Kiowa Technology Center on March 9, 2026, and performed well.

Leah Bauman, Principal at Mission Elementary, reported that students have completed their benchmark testing. Those who met or exceeded their benchmark goals will participate in the Spring Fling on March 12. She also reported that on Tuesday, March 10, the STAR Challenge winners will travel to Chickasha for a bowling party. The STAR Challenge reward is based on attendance, behavior, and grades.

Amy Mears, Principal at East Elementary, reported that their upcoming spring challenge, "Pop with the Players," is approaching. Students who maintain good attendance, grades, and behavior are eligible to participate. Winners will have the opportunity to have pops with the boys and girls basketball teams and spend time playing on the playground. Ms. Mears noted that this is one of the students' favorite challenges, and they are all looking forward to it.
